

One Question

John 8:37-59

*Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was born, I am."
(John 8:58, NASB)*

All the religious talk,
all its arguments,
all its questions boil down to just one question:
 Who do you believe Jesus to be?
 Is He the divine Son of God, or isn't He?
No one can avoid this decision.
Try to avoid it, and you have decided.

If He is the Son of God, the Father's Chosen One,
then He alone is salvation.
We owe Him our gratitude,
 our trust,
 our obedience,
 our worship,
 our love,
 our lives,
 ourselves
without any reserve.

If He is anything less to us,
no way of salvation remains.
We have separated ourselves from God,
 who is our only source of life.
Corruption and death are all we have left.

Who is Jesus Christ to you?
