

True Bread

John 6:48-58

“Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, God, has set His seal.

“I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me will not hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst.” (John 6:27, 35, NASB)

Father, how often have You offered us life that is deep,
 rich,
 satisfying, and
 unending,
and in our hearts and desires
we looked right past You.
We continued to crave
 physical comfort,
 human approval, and
 security we can hold in our hand.

You offer us Bread that satisfies our beings
 completely and forever.
We spend ourselves reaching for bread that only satisfies the body, and only for a few hours.

Father, You offer us Jesus Christ,
 and at such a cost!
Your Bread is His body broken.
Your Wine is His blood poured out.

*Come, all you who are thirsty,
come...you who have no money,
come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
without money and without cost.
Why spend money on what is not bread,
and your labor on what does not satisfy?
Listen, listen to me and eat what is good,
and your soul will delight in the richest of fare.
Give ear and come to me;
hear me, that your soul may live.
(Isaiah 55:1-3a, NIV)*
