

Only to Your Glory

John 12:1-33

Father, pour me out as a fragrance,
completely,
irrecoverably.
Plant me as a seed,
dead to myself and my own future,
alive only to grow into Your greater purpose.
Otherwise, I remain
small,
single, and
alone.

From me and my dying
gain fruit,
gain glory for Yourself.
O Father, this world so needs to see Your glory!
We need to see the light of all You are.
We need to fully grasp
Your greatness,
Your goodness, and
Your constant, personal presence.
With Jesus, may Your glory be my constant focus and my deepest desire.

From this point on, help me to think of myself
only in You,
only as part of You and all You are doing.
May thoughts of my success and my glory be
dead,
buried, and
gone forever.

With Jesus, Father,
now and forever
may I think and speak and be only in You,
from You,
through You,
to You.

Hymn: Make My Life a Holy Fragrance

© 2015 Ken Bible, c/o LNWhymns.com