

Our Joining

Revelation 21:1-4

O Father, the new creation!
How we long for it!
All the root of sin and all the fruit of sin
will be gone
completely and forever.

But surely the crown of the new creation will be the crown of the first creation:
Your people,
made in Your own image,
breath of Your own breath,
life of Your own life.

We who were once
stained by sin,
bound by death,
rebellious,
far away and
unfaithful,
will be the pure and glorious bride of Your own dear Son.

As His bride, we will not arise from the earth but will descend from heaven itself, perfectly prepared and beautifully adorned
by You.

In Jesus Christ, Your holy and loving Son, we will be lovingly,
intimately joined with You in perfect, constant, eternal union, with all trace of separation gone forever.
One with You, Father.
One in Your Son, Jesus Christ.

O Lord, how we long for His return!
How we yearn for our joining!
