

Father, This Is What I Want

“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.” (Matthew 7:7, NASB)

Father, You invite me to ask.
You challenge me to ask.
So I ask.
This is what I really want:

I want to be more thankful.
You have immersed me in blessings beyond my imagining.
Open my eyes,
    then open my heart and my mouth
    in humble gratitude.

I want to be more loving.
You have surrounded me with
    precious people,
    people I love,
    people who truly love me,
    people You long to love through me.
Merciful Father, make me
    more gentle and loving.

I want to be more prayerful.
So many of my thoughts are
    vain,
    empty,
    selfish,
    unfruitful.
You are always with me.
I want an open, comfortable
    line of communication between You and me.

I want to trust You more simply and constantly.
Make childlike faith my joyful response to
    every need,
    every joy,
    every moment.
