

God Our Fullness

We are inherently, inescapably needy.
We are not self-sufficient and never can be.
We forever have needs outside ourselves –
    food,
    water,
    air,
    temperature control,
    companionship, and
    so much more.

We are fragile creatures,
    never self-contained,
    designed to be dependent,
    designed to be incomplete.

Sovereign God, You are complete in Yourself.
You are all power,
    all wisdom,
    all life,
    all truth, and
    all rightness.

You are self-contained.
    You need nothing.
    You lack nothing.
You are full to overflowing.
You give of Yourself
    constantly,
    lavishly,
    lovingly.

O God of all,
    we need You.
Only in Your fullness can we be complete.
Only in Your wisdom can we think aright.
Only in Your power can we
    be who we need to be.
Only in You are we
    pure and
    at peace.
Only in You are we
    loved,
    honored, and

truly, deeply satisfied.

Only in You, Father.

Only in You.
