

The Anointed One

God so loved this corrupted world that He promised to rescue it, entirely and completely.

He promised to saturate all creation with His own character:
His love,
holiness,
goodness, and
beauty.

He would accomplish all this through a special Person He would choose,
prepare, and
anoint.

Hear the affection in God's voice as He joyfully introduces this Messiah,
this Anointed One,
His own Son:

He would be a Prophet who would clearly and faithfully share God's wisdom with God's people.

He would be a Priest who would bring God to His people and His people to God.

He would be a Mighty Warrior who would defend and deliver God's people with all the awesome power of the Sovereign Creator.

He would be a Shepherd who would tenderly care for every need of even the weakest and most vulnerable.

He would be a Great King who would rule everywhere and forever, bringing complete justice and unimaginable blessing to every corner of the earth.

But this Anointed One would also be a Servant,
obedient and humble,

selfless and single-minded, focused only on doing His Father's will.
He would suffer
horribly,
and willingly,
to rescue us from our own sin.
