

Reflection on Psalm 110

Father, at Your right hand You have enthroned Your Son, Jesus Christ, holy God and
 wholly human,
 exactly like You and exactly like us, but without sin.

There at the power center of the universe forever reigns
 our elder Brother,
 our own flesh and blood.
With You, He will rule
 all reality for
 all eternity,
He rules with absolute, fearsome might over His enemies and tender, all-encompassing love for His people.

But our King is also our Great High Priest.
He devotes all He is to faithfully ministering all Your love to all Your people.
Not even His own life was too high a price to pay.
He forgives,
 protects,
 cleanses,
 teaches,
 intercedes, and
 blesses.
He will be entirely
 for us
 for all eternity.

Thank You, Father, for the
 immeasurable,
 inexpressible
gift of Your Son!

Hymn: Psalm 110