

Reflection on Psalm 124

Sovereign God is for us.

Otherwise sin and death would have swallowed us whole,
as a voracious beast would gulp down
a tiny, helpless creature.

This evil world would have swept in like a typhoon and swamped us.
Its raging winds and mountainous waves would have buried us forever in the murky depths.

The master tempter would have easily trapped us in our weakness,
ignorance, and
selfishness.
His teeth would have torn our fragile flesh and crushed the life from us.

But Sovereign God is for us.
The Almighty One,
the Lord of all the heavenly armies, is our Creator,
our Keeper,
our Deliverer,
our Father.

He claims us as His very own
and places His own Magnificent Being between us and anything that would threaten us.

His power is absolute.
His love is unconditional.
He overwhelms every enemy in heaven and earth.

Our life is
His life,
untouchable,

indestructible,
pulsing forever within us.
As long as He is our Lord, our eternal safety is absolutely certain.

Praise to You!
Praise to You,
Almighty Lord and Savior!
