

Breath of His Breath

*By the word of the Lord the heavens were made,
And by the breath of His mouth all their host (Psalm 33:6, NASB).*

Then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being (Genesis 2:7, NASB).

When [Jesus] had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit" (John 20:22, NASB).

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16, NIV).

For our Loving Father, giving to His children has always been deeply,
thoroughly,
passionately personal.

Whether He is forming us from dust, joyfully creating our beautiful home, or sharing His own life with us, He does so with the infinite wisdom and loving heart of the perfect Father.
His love for us,
His lavish self-giving,
is as personal and intimate as
His own breath.
Like a mother, He wants nothing between Himself and His dear child.

We are breath of His Breath,
spirit of His Spirit,
life of His own Holy Life.
