

Beware of Unbelief

Hebrews 3:7-19

Beware of unbelief.

Beware of its tempters:
fear and doubt.

They all whisper the same lies:
“Your needs are real, but God is not.
He won’t do anything to help you.”

If we listen to such deception,
the fruits are the opposite of the fruits of the Spirit:
not love, but self-centeredness;
not joy, but anger;
not peace, but turmoil;
not patience, but anxiety;
not gentleness, but jealousy;
not goodness, but bitterness;
not faith, but doubt;
not meekness or self-control, but desperate grasping.

Generosity is one of the first casualties of fear.
We stop reaching out and begin pulling in.

Loving Father,
Merciful Savior,
when concerns come,
keep my eyes on You.
Help me to always move toward You,
not away from You.
Help me to respond,
not in fear,
but in faith.

*Almighty God, my Father,
as I trust You,
I am unmoved by threats and
Fruitless worry disappears into peace
when I see only You.*
