

The Exchange

I give You
 my sin,
 my failures,
 my emptiness,
 my neediness.
And I give back to You all the wonderful generous gifts
You have freely lent to me.

As I do,
You give me
 all You are and all You have,
every moment,
 evermore
as I simply trust You.

I rightly belong to You anyway.
 You created me from Yourself.
 You bought me back from death
 with Your own life.
I am only giving You what has always been Yours.

In return,
You give me
 all Your infinite riches, You who are
 the Source of all,
 the treasury of all that is good.
I am in You
 constantly,
 forever.
Praise to You, Father God!

Hymn: One