

Reflection on Psalm 53

Psalm 53 affirms that

“There is no God”

is spoken from a corrupt,

self-centered heart

that is running from the truth.

Jesus said,

*“For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world,
but so that the world might be saved through Him.*

The one who believes in Him is not judged;

the one who does not believe has been judged already,

because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

And this is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the Light;

for their deeds were evil.

For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light,

so that his deeds will not be exposed.

But the one who practices the truth comes to the Light,

so that his deeds will be revealed as having been performed in God.”

(John 3:17-21, NASB)

No matter where you are on your spiritual journey,
come to the Light.

Open your heart to the Light of God's truth.

Let Him

and the truth of His Word

examine you.

His truth is always love, for God is love (1 John 4:8).

So bow to the truth and humbly pray,

Search me, God, and know my heart;

Put me to the test and know my anxious thoughts;

And see if there is any hurtful way in me,

And lead me in the everlasting way.

(Psalm 139:23-24, NASB)

Hymn: Psalm 53