

Reflection on Psalm 65

Sovereign Creator,
Universal Father,
Transcendent King,
Holy, Holy, Holy God,
sometimes the only appropriate response to You is silence –
    the silence of deep joy,
    the silence of childlike trust, the silence of humble, selfless worship.

All creation models such silent worship.
Without a word, it
    endlessly,
    eloquently
lifts up its mighty voice to You, glorifying You for all
    You
    are.

Its unsung hymns ring with wonder and
    joy and adoration.

Its liturgies bubble over with a richness that words cannot capture.

O Father, school me in such worship.
Let Your creation and Your Holy Spirit
teach me.
Then when I do speak or
    sing,
may it be in
    full,
    wholehearted response
to You,
the One,
the Holy,
the Living and True God.
