

Imagine the mutual joy and mutual love of a perfect marriage. That's the way God describes our eternal life with Him. Revelation describes our gathering to Him as the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:7-8). God's glorified people will descend from heaven like a bride in all her glory, ready for union with her husband (21:1-4). And in Isaiah, God promises that the new creation will be a place of fullness of joy: God's people will rejoice in Him, and He will rejoice in His people (Isaiah 65:17-20). Imagine fullness of love! Imagine fullness of joy!
