

Inscrutable God

Unsearchable... mysterious...
unfathomable...
beyond investigation or
scrutiny –
He is the
inscrutable God.

No human effort can search Him out or penetrate His mystery.
But He longs to be fully known by those He created from Himself.
He works tirelessly to reveal Himself clearly and completely.

As we actively trust Him,
we come to know Him.
But trusting and knowing God are a gradual, growing process.
Our immature faith,
our lingering self-centeredness,
our smallness and
fearfulness
sometimes blind us to His goodness and rightness.

When we don't understand what God is doing or not doing,
know that it is because His wisdom and power and love
are greater than we can possibly comprehend.
We can find perfect peace in trusting Him,
even when we don't understand Him.
