

I Choose You

Joshua 24:15; Psalm 119:57; John 15:16; Ephesians 1:3-6

Before the foundation of the world,
You chose us –
 You chose me –
to be set apart completely to Yourself,
 to be holy and blameless,
 despite my obvious unworthiness.

You chose that I could be
 Your dearly-loved child,
 though I have been anything but lovely.

And now, in response to Your love for us –
 Your love for ME –

I choose You.

Creator,

Father,

I choose You as my portion.

I choose You as my inheritance,
 my reward,
 my daily life.

I choose You as my focus,
 my goal, and
 my destiny.

In response to all the magnificent blessings

 You have poured out on me,
in response to all You are and all You have done
 for me and in me,

in response to You choosing me,
 loving Father,

I

CHOOSE

YOU!
