

Father, when that great day comes and I stand before You in the full light of reality, I want to please You and be one with You. I want to be pure as You are pure, right as You are right, and loving as You are loving. Help me to live and love now as I will wish I had when we are face to face.

Listen & Sing: When I Face You, Lord

© 2012 by Ken Bible