LEAD-IN: *I lift up my eyes to you,
to you whose throne is in heaven.
As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master,
as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God. (Psalm 123:1-2, NIV)*

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Worship by Faith

Without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek Him. (Hebrews 11:6, NIV)

Every act of worship is the fruit of faith.

To worship, we must believe that:

- God exists, and as we respond to Him, He will respond to us;
- He calls us to worship Him in spirit and in truth;
- He is self-existent, while we depend entirely on Him;
- His authority is so absolute and His perfections so infinite that we must put all we are under His control now and forever;
that we justly owe Him every thought, word, and deed.

To worship is to believe these truths and to live accordingly.
