LEAD-IN: Consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus. Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.
(Romans 6:11-13, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Prayer Response to Romans 6

Father, I present all I am,
not to sin,
but to You,
as instruments to glorify You:

my heart, to desire only You,
my mind, to ponder You and Your truth,
my mouth, to speak Your words and Your praise,
my feet, to follow wherever You lead,
my hands, to freely share Your love.

God of all truth and goodness,
all life and love and salvation,

I am Your servant.

By Your grace and through my obedient response, separate me entirely to Yourself.

Make me holy and wholly Yours in all I am and
all I do.

The end of sin is death,
so I leave it in the past.

My present and future are in You and in Your boundless, unending life.

Praise to You, my Father!
