LEAD-IN: You sweep men away in the sleep of death;

they are like the new grass...

though in the morning it springs up new,

by evening it is dry and withered.

The length of our days is seventy years—

or eighty, if we have the strength...

they quickly pass quickly, and we fly away.

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

(Psalm 90:5-6, 10, 12, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Ever Increasing Health in Christ

We do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. (2 Corinthians 4:16, NIV)

We're all engaged in a battle to keep our bodies healthy and attractive. It's a worthy effort.

But it's a battle you'll lose. Your body will decay and die. In fact, it's happening right now.

On the other hand, that inner core of your life, that relationship with God, that inner life you share with Him, can grown more and more healthy as time goes by, no matter what happens to your body.

That's where your future lies. That's where your time, thought, and effort will yield the richest rewards.

Life is precious. Invest yourself in what will last.
