LEAD-IN: By Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him. He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. (Colossians 1:16-17, NASB)

*Oh, the depth of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways!
For from Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen. (Romans 11:33, 36, NASB)*

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Explore God

God is endlessly fascinating and endlessly surprising!

He is transcendent.

He is infinitely above all He has created, yet

He is immanent. He is constantly,

personally,
intimately with us.

God is humble.

How can an infinite,

all-powerful,
all-knowing God

be humble?

He lowers Himself to interact with us,
to care about all the little things that concern us.

Who is like the Lord our God,

Who is enthroned on high,

Who looks far down to

The heavens and the earth?

He raises the poor from the dust,

He lifts the needy from the garbage heap. (Psalm 113:5-7, NASB)

He overflows all physical reality, yet He concerns Himself with everything that concerns us.

He completely knows all that is,

and He loves completely,

with His whole magnificent being.

Even judgment is enacted out of love.

You cannot discover Him

by your own effort and determination.

But He waits to reveal Himself to any person who reveres Him and trusts Him.

He is All-in-all,
the Source of all that is good,
yet simply knowing Him is
His greatest gift and richest blessing.

So day by day,
desire to know Him better.

Read.

Pray.

Trust.

Explore God.
