LEAD-IN: Whatever things were gain to me, these things I have counted as loss because of Christ. More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them mere rubbish, so that I may gain Christ, and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith, that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; if somehow I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. (Philippians 3:7-11, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Give Me Jesus

Father,
of all the good things that call for my attention,
of all the wonderful gifts You have given,
One is more precious,
more glorious,
more dear
than them all:
Jesus Christ.

For as I know Him,
I know You,
face-to-face.
As I trust Him,
I share in all the riches of
Your salvation,
Your Spirit, and an unbroken, unbounded relationship with You.

Father,
day by day,
more and more,
give me Jesus.
