LEAD-IN: See how great a love the Father has given us, that we would be called children of God; and in fact we are. For this reason the world does not know us: because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. (1 John 3:1-2, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Kingdom of Love

Jesus came announcing,
 "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 4:17, NASB)
He taught that the Kingdom was growing wherever hearts were receiving it. (Matthew 13; Mark 4) He taught us to pray to the Father,
 "Your kingdom come." (Matthew 6:10, NASB)
We pray for the day that God's control and God's character
will permeate
 every heart and all creation.

And since
 God is love (1 John 4:8, NASB),
His Kingdom is a Kingdom of Love.
As we make Him our Lord and King, His love fills and guides and shapes us.
And when His Kingdom comes in its fullness
 throughout all creation,
all the world will be permeated with His love –
 every heart,
 every life,
 every relationship
 with Him and with each other.
Imagine the peace,
 the joy,
 the freedom from fear and anxiety,
 the beautiful, unbroken union
we will all share.

O Father,
 Your Kingdom come!
