

Holiness Devotional

“Be holy, because I am holy” (1 Peter 1:16, NIV). I used to hear that verse, and it would make me feel so guilty and uncomfortable. How can God expect me to ever live a holy life? How can I consistently be who He wants me to be?

Then I came to understand that Christ Himself is holy, and He wants to live His holy life within me. I could never live a pure life on my own, but when I let Him, He lives His pure and beautiful life through me. He only asks that I trust Him, one moment at a time.

As I trust Him, I find myself loving God more deeply, and He begins to give me a genuine love for those around me.
