

Our Childish Perspective

Revelation 20:1-10

Father, You think and act in eternity.
We live second-by-second in our little time and place.
Exactly when and exactly how will Your eternal actions
 touch us?
That's what we ask.
It's all we want to know, and we don't always understand Your answer.
Our perspective is too small and self-centered.

But Your timing is always perfect.
Your ways are always right.
Your gifts are always flawless.

You never take short-cuts.
You never rush.
You patiently work our redemption till it is
 full and complete,
 perfect in every detail,
 no matter how long it takes.

Father, we joyfully and gratefully wait on You.
We relax in Your care,
 trusting and
 worshiping all the while.
