LEAD-IN: Let no unwholesome word come out of your mouth, but if there is any good word for edification according to the need of the moment, say that, so that it will give grace to those who hear. Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and slander must be removed from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.
(Ephesians 4:29-32, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Respond in the Spirit of Christ

Everyone requires patience.
Everyone!

Each day, each of us navigates a challenging world of widely varied moods and personalities.
And each individual we encounter is trying to navigate
their own challenging world.
So our exchanges with each other can sometimes become
sharp,
defensive,
annoyed, and
impatient.

This is especially true with the precious individuals
nearest to us.
We don't realize we have been unkind until after the hurtful words have left our mouths and are biting into that dear one.

So, merciful Father, for
every conversation today,
every word,
every attitude,
give me the Spirit of Christ.

Through me,
only speak Your patient, unfailing love.
