

Reflection on Psalm 94

Father, Your world is unjust.
We have made it so,
 yet we cannot heal it.
Bring justice, O righteous King!
Help us do our part.
But for complete healing, we wait on
 You.

We consistently
 underestimate
Your deep concern and
 energetic response
to our needs,
 including our sins.
At the same time, we consistently
 overestimate ourselves.
We don't realize how
 weak,
 vulnerable, and
 inconsistent we are.

So we look to You,
 worship You,
 work as You enable us, and wait on You.

As we wait, You give us
 the peace,
 the joy,
 the absolute security
that is found only in You.

Praise to You, loving Father!
Praise to You, holy Son!
Praise to You, faithful Spirit!
May Your Kingdom come!
