

Reflection on Psalm 15

Lord God,
Holy God,
High above all that I am and
    all that I can imagine,
You ask me to come to You.
You invite me to come to You.
But I am completely unworthy of You.
How can I come?
How should I come?

You are holy.
    I come humbly.
You are mercy.
    I come repenting.
You are perfect in power,
perfect in wisdom,
perfect in love.
    I come trusting You.

You are truth.
I will meditate on Your truth,
    speak Your truth, and live Your truth.

You love each of us,
    all of us,
deeply and
    completely.
Father, I will love each of us,
    all of us,
as You love us,
    deeply,
    completely,
    actively,
    generously,
    fearlessly.

But God,
    I can do none of this on my own.
I will depend on Your
    almighty,

all-wise,
all-loving Spirit.
You pour Him out
freely,
lavishly
on all who
come to You as a child,
all who
simply
trust
You.
