

We Live and Move and Breathe in You

Acts 17:22-34

Like the people of Athens in the Apostle Paul's day, we struggle and strive for
 a higher life,
 a deeper satisfaction,
 some greater good.

We search far and wide, thinking that somewhere out there
 we'll find what will quench our thirst:
 money,
 material goods,
 comforts,
 accomplishments,
 meaning.

But Paul reminds us that we are all children of the Creator of all that is, the Generous Giver of every good,
 every joy,
 every blessing, big and small.

And He is not hiding or far away, for in Him we live and move and exist (Acts 17:28, NASB).

We spend our entire lives
 engulfed in Him,
 immersed in
 His goodness,
 His greatness,
 His unfailing love.

Talk to Him.
Trust Him.
Discover the joys of living every moment in His constant personal presence.
