

Whispers of All You Are

Job 26:6-14

Death lies naked before God, stripped of all its dark power and intimidating mystery.

He hangs all the trillions of massive stars,
each in its own place,
held by invisible forces.

He saturates the wispy clouds with enough water to fill all the oceans and rivers and refresh the entire world.

His Word
causes the unshakable heavens to tremble and silences the chaotic seas.

But realize that all the greatness and all the grandeur of creation are but the fringes of His ways.
They are passing glimpses of the Eternal and Magnificent One.
They are faint whispers of all He is.
