

Father, some of Your people are more liberal than me, and some are more conservative. But they are all Yours. You dearly love them all and freely, gladly accept them all (Romans 14). Together, they testify to Your all-ness. Help me to freely, gladly accept them all as well. No more rejecting those who think differently than me! Help me to live Your love in all its depth and breadth.

© 2026 by Ken Bible, LNW@LNWhymns.com.