

The Miracle of Christmas

God, I look down into the manger, and I see You there.
I see who You have become for us in Jesus Christ.

You are holy, yet completely human.
You are Almighty God, but also the weakest,
most helpless of all humanity.
You who overflow all worlds,
all realities,
are now so stunningly tiny!

I hear no sovereign word thundering a universe into existence;
only a newborn's fierce, desperate cry.

And now, Lord,
just as You incarnated Yourself in that infant, You are incarnating Yourself in me.

The same Holy Spirit that filled that tiny, helpless, human baby is filling me,
growing me to be just like
Him,
just like
You.

THAT is the true miracle of Christmas:
You
in me.
