

Here I Am

Genesis 22:1, 11; Exodus 3:4; 1 Samuel 3:1-10; Isaiah 6:8

Father,

when You came to Abraham when he was well past 100...

when You spoke to Moses at the burning bush...

when You first called out to the boy Samuel ...

when You spoke in a vision to the young prophet Isaiah,

none of them knew what You were about to ask of them.

But each of them responded simply and positively with a single Hebrew word,

“Hineni”,

or

“Here I am”.

When You speak to me, whether through Your Word, or through a sermon, or by Your Spirit’s inner whisper,

I want my response to always be the same as those of

Abraham, Moses, Samuel, and Isaiah:

Here I am.

That is,

You have my complete attention.

I am listening.

I am available.

I trust You.

I am Yours.

Speak, Lord.

Hymn: Hineni

© 2026 Ken Bible, LNW@LNWhymns.com.