

God Is the Fullness of Joy

God surrounds us in time.
The Eternal One engulfs us in Himself.

If we could see all the past, we would see God always going ahead of us.
 Wherever and whenever we go,
 He has already been there,
 preparing our way.
We would see Him
 always pursuing us
 before we were even conscious of Him, always working to draw us to Himself, always blessing us with every spiritual blessing in Christ (Ephesians 1:3).

If we could see all the present,
 we would see the glorious, Almighty God,
 fully WITH US,
not just in emotional church services,
 but in all the quiet, ordinary moments.
All He is
 is with us and for us in every “here” and every “now”.

And when we are immersed in all the glories of heaven,
we will know what has always been true:
 HE is eternal life.
 HE is perfect peace.
 HE HIMSELF is the fullness of joy.
