

Reunited

Father, You created me from Yourself.
My life is Your breath.
I came from You.

And now,
 despite my sin,
 despite my humanity,
You have brought us back together.
In You, my past flows together with my present and
 my future.
Your loving, eternal purpose
 has not changed.
Once again I have
 Your breath,
 Your Spirit within.
You are shaping all I am,
 making me exactly like Jesus,
 who is exactly like You.
All I am is
 from You,
 for You, and
 to You forever.

You are fulfilling all Your grand dreams for me
 in Jesus Christ.
Through Him we are becoming completely one again.

O my Father,
 thank You,
 thank You,
 thank You!
What a wonderful reunion!
I love You!
