Wisdom Is Available to All

Wisdom shouts in the street,
She raises her voice in the public square;
At the head of the noisy streets she cries out;
At the entrance of the gates in the city she declares her sayings:
“How long, you naive ones, will you love simplistic thinking?
And how long will scoffers delight themselves in scoffing
And fools hate knowledge?
Turn to my rebuke,
Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
(Proverbs 1:20-23, NASB)

Wisdom is not a cultured aristocrat.
Wisdom is not the property of university libraries and ivory towers.
Wisdom is a street vendor,
shouting in public squares and noisy avenues:
“Come and get it!
How long will you cling to your ignorance and all its trouble?
Listen to me, and enjoy all the best of life!”

God is the source of all wisdom, and He freely shares Himself with all who will ask Him and trust Him.
